Volunteer Interest Self Assessment Questionnaire

Use this form to help you assess if volunteering at Covenant Health is right for you.

The Volunteer placement process includes several steps and trips to the hospital before you can begin volunteering. These trips involve attending volunteer orientations, going through HR for Flu and TB shots, retrieving your Volunteer Badge and position training,

1. Are you willing to make these trips required to complete the volunteer placement process?

Circle One: Yes No

Covenant Health’s volunteer program is very structured. The volunteer commitment is a weekly, four-hour shift either in the morning or afternoon (Monday-Friday)

2. Do you have time in your life for this regular commitment?

Circle One: Yes No

Covenant Health volunteers wear a volunteer uniform and ID badge during their volunteer shift and adhere to a dress code noted in the Volunteer Handbook.

3. Are you willing to wear the volunteer uniform and ID badge during your volunteer shift?

Circle One: Yes No

Typically, volunteers who have been and continue to be successful at Covenant Health possess certain skills and characteristics.

4. Do you consider yourself good at the following:
   - time management, teamwork, communication,
   - taking initiative, serving others and treating everyone with dignity

Circle One: Yes No

If you answered "yes" to all of these questions, we encourage you to complete the remainder of the Volunteer Application Form.

Code of Ethics

Working as a volunteer is a generous act, but it is also a privilege, which entails certain responsibilities. While at the hospital, volunteers must adhere to the same Code of Ethics practiced by professional staff.

1. A volunteer represents the hospital while in uniform and should act in a manner commanding respect for himself/herself, the hospital and the medical staff.
2. All information regarding patients and their families is strictly confidential.
3. A volunteer will not use his association with the hospital to seek the free medical advice or favors for himself or others.
4. Should a volunteer observe anything that seems to be amiss in the hospital, he/she should direct any questions or opinions to the volunteer office 725-6075 (CCH) or 725-0465 (CMC), not to patients, friends, or associates.
5. A volunteer must make sure he/she understands instructions. If in doubt, he/she should ask for clarification before acting.

(Initial that you have read and agree to the above)
